Conditions of FIA Licenses: For entering a car, an Entrant's License is required. For driving a car, a Driver's License is required. If entrant and driver are one in the same, both an Entrant and Driver License must be held. Licenses are valid for competing in any event on the FIA Calendar, unless endorsed for Drag Racing, Historic Racing or Rallies only. Licenses are for the calendar year only. Applications for renewal will be mailed by the Member Clubs. In order to be valid, a license must be signed by the license holder. An FIA license is not transferable, under penalty of revocation of the license.
